HERRICK DENIES FRICTION.

No Break Between Sulzer and His Attorneys, He Says.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 4.—Rumors that Governor Sulzer and his counsel were at the parting of the ways were denied emphatically last night by D. Cady Herrick, chief of staff. "Herrick broke his silence only after a story had gone broad cast that several of the attorneys would withdraw from the case Monday.

"There is not a word of truth in the stories," Herrick said. "He may be having trouble with other attorneys, with whom he is reported to have consulted, but not with those who have appeared in court for him. We will be on hand Monday, and, in so far as I know, every other day until the trial ends."

Herrick also denied that counsel and the Governor are at logger heads over the story Sulzer insists he will tell from the witness stand. It was reported that the governor's plan of throwing down the bars and laying bare his whole political career was distasteful to his atetorneys.

"We want only one thing—the truth," Herrick said.

That the governor's counsel is none too well pleased with his consulting attorneys other than those appearing at the counsel table is well known, but he has permitted the latter to have their own way on all points of great import and so no serious break is expected.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

King Gustave of Sweden was suddenly taken ill yesterday of a stomach ailment, and his condition is precarious. His illness has resulted from an operation for appendicitis performed three years ago.

The demand for beer in America is far exceeding the supply of raw materials, and a beer famine is threatened within a very short time, according to a statement made by E. A. Faust, chairman of the crop improvement committee of the United States Brewers' Association, at the annual meeting of the association at Atlantic City. Mr. Faust said that unless the methods of raising barley and malt are improved there will not only be a scarcity of beer, but the price is in danger of being advanced "until a man can get but little more than a swallow for five cents."

The price of radium in Berlin has been advanced $10,000 a gram, because of the unprecedented demand for the precious substance. Radium is now quoted at $115,000 a gram, which means a pound of it would be valued at about $52,000,000 if such a quantity of it could be amassed. The radium institute anounced in London last night that the emination of gas given off by radium is as efficient for curative purposes as radium itself. A method has also been discovered whereby the gas can be conveyed to medical men throughout the country for use among their patients. The gas, although given off constantly, does not weaken the parent substance. The institute has only four grams of radium, but the use of the gas will increase its utility enormously.

George A. Rawson, of Bluefield, W. Va., an aviator attached to the New York Aero Club, is dying at Spencer, W. Va., as the result of a 300-foot fall with a Bleriot monoplane while making a flight at the Roane county fair. Rawson was making his initial flight at Spencer, and had been up only a few minutes when the engine stopped and he was plunged downward with his machine on a hill side. The monoplane struck in the top of a big tree, throwing Rawson out and bounced onto the ground, turning over several times. Rawson was picked up bleeding and unconscious, suffering from numerous contusions and internal injuries.

WANT NEW LAW ON SUBJECT OF LIBEL

Virginia Editors Consider Question at a Special Meeting.

COL. MURPHY'S GUESTS

Meeting of the Press Association Will Close With a Royal Banquet Tonight.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 4.—Endorsement was given yesterday by the Virginia State Press Association to a series of proposed publicity laws, including a definite and clearly-worded statute on the subject of libel. A committee on legislation, appointed at the summer session at Mount Elliott Springs, reported through chairman Charles R. Hughes, of Berryville, the initial draft of five bills, which will be presented to the next session of the General Assembly. The committee was commended and continued to perfect the work it has in hand.

The proposed statute on libel provides, in the event of the unintentional publication of some matter believed by some citizen to be libelous, the publication in the same place in the paper of the aggrieved party's sworn statement of the facts in the case shall be accepted as a full and complete withdrawal, and that in libel suits or prosecutions the truth of the matter may be submitted to the jury, and if the jury is of opinion that the matter charged as libelous is true, and was published in good faith, then the person publishing it shall be acquitted.

About 100 members of the Virginia Press Association had registered at Murphys Hotel as guests of Colonel John Murphy on the occasion of the opening of his new building yesterday, when President Chas. B. Cooke called the meeting to order. The first business transacted was the appointment of a committee consisting of Messrs. Green, Campbell and James, with instructions to convey to Colonel Murphy the regret of the association that he was indisposed and unable to attend the meeting, and the hope that he would be able to be out today.

Mayor Ainslie welcomed the Virginia editors as the "brains of the State," and went somewhat beyond his usual form of welcome to the visiting conventions.

MINERS' RESCUED.

Thomas Toshesky Staggers From Hole Into Arms of His Wife And Children.

Centralia, Pa., Oct. 4.—Thomas Toshesky, a miner employed by the Lehigh Valley Coal Company, was rescued this morning at 7:25 o'clock, after being buried eight days in the mine.

The coal barrier that had held Toshesky prisoner in the mine since noon a week ago yesterday was broken down at that hour. Several minutes later, when the men who had risked life and limb to bring him out had made the way safe and easy, he was escorted to his wife and children, who have hovered about the spot where the men have been performing marvels in the rescue work.

When Toshesky reached the surface he staggered forward and was caught by Mine Inspector O'Donnell. The light of the sun coming over the mountain dazzled the victim of the fall of rock, and he was unable to see. This condition was anticipated, and blue eye glasses were placed over his eyes. His wife was at the head of the mine breast and when she saw her husband she fell to the ground with a prayer of thanksgiving.

PRESIDENT SIGNS BILL.

First Democratic Tariff Measure Since 1894 Now in Effect.

Surrounded by the leaders of united Democracy, President Wilson signed the Underwood-Simmons tariff bill at 9:09 o'clock last night at the White House. Simultaneously telegrams were sent to customs collectors throughout the country by the Treasury Department putting into actual operation the first Democratic tariff revision since 1894.

A happy group of legislators, members of the cabinet, and friends encircled the President as he smilingly sat down and slowly affixed his signature with two gold pens. He presented Representative Underwood the pen that had written the word "Woodrow" and the one which had completed his name to Senator Simmons, both of whom bowed their appreciation.

In impressive silence the President arose and delivered in easy, natural tones an extemporaneous speech that brought prolonged applause.

Among other things he said:

"I feel a very peculiar pleasure in what I have just done by way of taking part in the completion of a great piece of business."

"It is one very profound, a feeling of profound gratitude that working with the splendid men who have carried this through with studious attention and doing full justice all around I should have had a part in serving the people of this country as we have been striving to serve them ever since I can remember."

"We have set the business of this country free from those conditions which have made monopoly not only possible, but, in a sense, easy and natural."

"But there is no use taking away the conditions of monopoly if we do not take away also the power to create monopoly, and that is a financial rather than a merely circumstantial and economical power."

"We are about to take the second step, which will be the final step, in setting the business of this country free. That is what we shall do in the currency bill, which the House has already passed and which I have the utmost confidence the Senate will pass much sooner than some pessimistic individuals believe."

ASSASSINATION PLOT.

Traitor Betrays Plans of Mohammedan Band.

Rome, Oct. 4.—With the arrest by Venetian secret service men today of six members of a band of Mohammedans who recently arrived from Egypt, a plot to assassinate Lord Kitchener, former viceroy of India, was bared, according to the police. The revelation furnishes solution of the mysterious exodus of Kitchener and his party from Venice a short time ago.

Lord Kitchener came to Venice last week and announced that he would remain a month. Last Sunday, two hours after the arrival of eighteen Mohemmedans in the city, the hero of the Transvaal announced that he would immediately depart for England. International police have the twelve remaining members of the band under surveillance.

MRS. MONTAGUE CAUSES A SCENE

Makes Charge That Money Has Been Misappropriated.

MOORE TO THE RESCUE

State Official Makes Statement Which Shows That all Things Have Been Done in Order.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 4.—Mrs. Andrew J. Montague, wife of Congressman Montague, created confusion in the convention of the Virginia Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy yesterday when she made the assertion upon the floor of the convention that money from the State auditor's office for needy Confederate women had been misappropriated.

Mrs. A. A. Campbell, of Wytheville, declared the statement contrary to a letter which Auditor Moore had written her.

"Do you mean to dispute my word," asked Mrs. Montague, to which Mrs. Campbell replied:

"I am stating facts."

The clash precipitated by Mrs. Montague had its inception in an old misunderstanding between two factions relative to the expending of money for the inmates in the Confederate Home here. Auditor Moore threw light on the subject yesterday afternoon by stating that the money in question was not misappropriated but that it got into the hands of others than the real beneficiary. The husband of a needy w[illegible] in lieu of a check and squandered the money, he said.

By unanimous vote the delegates last night selected Bristol as the place of meeting next year. Danville presented a request for the honor of entertaining the convention, and Warrenton gave notice that it will extend an invitation in 1915.

Immediately following the reading of Mrs. Montague's statement, Mrs. Campbell led Mrs. Randolph to the front of the platform by the hand, and presented her with a large silver loving cup, the gift of Richmond Chapter. Mrs. Randolph was given an ovation, which increased when the presiding officer imprinted a kiss on her cheek.

While the cheering continued, Mrs. Campbell announced that she wished to appoint Mrs. Randolph to represent her, in her capacity as president of the Virginia Division, at the National Convention of the Daughters in New Orleans. Mrs. Randolph refused to allow Mrs. Campbell to make the sacrifice, and the convention sustained Mrs. Randolph.

NUDE NEGRO PURSUES HER.

Scared Woman Flees to Shelter, Then Falls in a Swoon.

Chester, Pa., Oct. 4.—While returning home from a trip to this city Thursday, Mrs. Mattie Blanton, of Felton, three miles south of Chester, heard a noise in the bushes alongside of the road. Turning, she was surprised to see a colored man, entirely nude, standing near her.

The negro commanded her to halt, but Mrs. Blanton started on a run, with him in pursuit. She sought refuge at the home of Charles Flounders, a neighbor, and as she entered fell into a swoon.

Flounders and his son armed themselves with shot guns and started in pursuit of the negro. They searched the nearby woods, but no trace of the man could be found.

WILL SERVE NINETY DAYS

Colored Boy Who Stabbed Companion Faces Police Court This Morning

The case of Wilber Banks, a 16-year-old colored boy, who stabbed Smith Miller, a colored youth, of the same age, near the Old Dominion Glass Works, on the 22nd of September, was called in the Police Court this morning.

The evdence showed that there had been bad feeling between the boys, who are employed at the Old Dominion works, and that both seemed disposed at first t osettle their differences with nature's weapons. It was alleged by one witness that Banks procured a knife early in the day about noon returned to the works for the purpose of using it upon his antagonist. The boys met and the cutting followed.

Banks in his defense said the Miller boy had picked up a brick, when he used the knife. This was not brought out in the evidence of the several witnesses who appeared.

Banks was sentenced to serve ninety days in jail.

J. M. Rodgers, an elderly man from Loudoun county who had been picked up in the streets in a drunken condition, later faced the bar. It appeared that he had been found in a similar condition Thursday night and had been liberated yesterday morning. He promised to leave the city forthwith if released. His request was granted with the assurance that if guilty of any further unseemly conduct n Alexandra, he would receve a severe sentence.

A special session of the Police Court was held yesterday afternoon in the city jail. Charles Lewis, colored, was charged with stealing two dollars from Henry Little colored, a fellow prisoner. He was sentenced to serve thirty days.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

HAS CUT DOWN STATE DEBT.

State Closed Fiscal Year With Surplus in The Treasury.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 4.—The public debt of the State of Virginia at the close of the fiscal year, September 30, was $24,645,075.29, according to a statement issued by Second Auditor Roswell Page. The debt is classified as follows:

Riddleberger bonds...	$ 5,594,454.16
Century bonds	16,124,478.86
School certificate	2,467,605.85
Unfounded securities ...	458.536.42
Total	$24,645,075.29

The State's fiscal year ended on Tuesday night and the officers were busily engaged yesterday in balancing accounts.

During the year just closed the public debt was reduced about $200,000 by the purchase of bonds for the sinking fund. The year closed with a cash balance to the credit of the sinking fund of $42,400, to be used for the purchase and retirement of bonds which at the present market rate will serve to retire approximately $50,000 of the State debt. By the terms of the sinknig fund act such bonds, although marked cancelled across their face, and punched with holes so as to be of no value, still continue to draw interest for the benefit of the sinking fund, so that that fund has an income both from its own investments in State bonds, and from the appropriations made from year to year for reduction of the debt.

BOY'S TERRIBLE CRIMES.

Kills Seven Persons With an Axe And Sleeps Calmly.

Nantes, France, Oct. 4.— A crime of incredible savagery was committed Tuesday by a boy 15 years old, who murdered with an axe no fewer than seven persons in the village of Basbriagen-Landreau in the department of the Leire-Infericure.

The boy, Marcel Redureau, was employed as a vine cutter. He and his employer, George Mabit were pressing grapes Tuesday evening, when a discussion arose between them. Redureau became angry seized a huge axe, and with a single blow cut Mabit's throat from ear to ear, killing him instantly.

The young murderer then entered his employer's house holding his formidable weapon dripping with blood. He dashed up to Mme. Mabit and slashed her throat till she was dead, and then killed a servant in the same way.

The boy proceeded to another room, where he dispatched his employer's mother, and then followed this by killing three of Mabit's children. He spared a fourth child, aged 4, lying by their side.

After completing his series of crimes Redureau went to bed and slept calmly until yesterday morning. The bodies were discovered by villagers. After his arrest he made a complete confession.

WOMEN TO SEEK VOTE.

Legislature Will be Asked to Submit Amendment to Constitution.

Richmond, Oct. 4.—That the next general assembly of Virginia will be asked to submit to the qualified voters voters of the state for ratification an amendment to the constitution, whereby women shall have the right of suffrage equal to that bestowed upon men, indicated by a petition of this nature which has made its appearance on the streets of Richmond.

The petition comes from the Equal Suffrage League of this city and is being circulated by members of the league who, it is understood, will demand a hearing before both branches of the assembly.

A great number of suffrage leaders have gone on record as being opposed to an amendment to the federal constitution giving women the right to vote because it is inimical to the principle of state's rights,and, many contend, would never be ratified by the Southern States.

It is also understood that a bill differing somewhat from the one introduced at the last session of the general assembly has already been prepared and will be placed in the hands of a strong member for introduction early in the next session.

The petition now in circulation in Richmond reads as follows:

"Petition to the General Assembly of Virginia."

"We the undersigned citizens of Virginia, over 21 years of age, do hereby respectfully petition your honorable body to propose and submit to the qualified voters for ratification an amendment to the constitution of Virginia whereby women shall have the right of suffrage equal to that bestowed upon men."

George E. Davis, alias George McDonald, a member of the International Structural Iron Workers' Union, was arrested yesterday in New York, and in a confession to the authorities revealed a series of remarkable dynamite plots, one of which called for simultaneous explosions in New York, St. Louis, Omaha, and San Francisco, during the trial of the McNamara brothers in Los Angeles. Davis was arraigned before United States Commissioner Shields on the charge of blowing up a trolley line viaduct which the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad was building at Mount Vernon, N. Y., on September 3, 1911.

Twelve persons so far have lost their lives, a number are missing, and many are believed to have perished, while damage totaling at least $6,000,000, has been caused as a result of the flood which is sweeping Southern Texas. Several railroads have been put out of commission by the floods, and from forty to fifty bridges have been washed away. Water is from four to six feet deep in the streets of San Antonio.

DIES FROM INJURY.

Negro Had Both Legs Crushed off by Street Car.

Lynchburg Va., Oct. 4.—William Gilmore, a middle-aged colored man, who lived at Boonsboro, had both legs cut off Thursday evening at 8 o'clock by a street car, just opposite the dancing pavillion at Rivermont Park, and died later on the operating table at the City Hospital.

The negro had been drinking, as his breath plainly indicated, and a bottle of whisky was found upon his person.

Seeks Missing Wife.

Bristol, Va., Oct. 4.—J. M. Marcum, a farmer of Powell's Valley, near Norton, Wise county, Va., came to Bristol this week searching for his wife and 11-year-old daughter. He says that Mrs. Marcum left home Tuesday, after a slight quarrel. Packing her clothing in a market basket, she went to a public school nearby and got her 11-year-old daughter, Ida Marcum, and the two left. The woman told her 17-year-old son that she was coming to Bristol.

Immediately after learning of his wife's departure Marcum began a search, but up to the present time has got no clue. He is confident that she is in Bristol, and will at once get in touch with the police in an effort to locate his wife and child.

The missng woman is described as tall, with black hair and dark complexion. Besides the little girl with her, she has three other children at home.

One of the most daring and successfully conducted robberies in the police history, of Baltimore was executed recently, when clever theives carried off about fifty thousand dollars' worth of old coins from the collection of Waldo Newcomer, president of the National Exchange Bank, one of the finest private collections in the country. The robbery occurred at the Newcomer home, 105 West Monument street, some time between the latter part of June, when Mr. and Mrs. Newcomer left on a trip, and September 15, when they returned hime.

EXERCISES LAST NIGHT AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH.

The gathering of Baptists of Alexandria in the First Baptist Church last night, as had been anticipated, was a most interesting and enjoyable religious events in the history of the city. Many friends of the church mingled with them, and the auditorium was crowded to its fullest capacity. The speakers acquitted themselves admirably and their discourses were of a nature which proved interesting, impressive and encouraging to members of other churches. The past five years' history of the church, during which Rev. Dr. W. F. Watson has been in charge, showed the fruits of the earnest endeavors of pastor and people in building up the church and expanding its influence in Alexandria. A few years ago certain alterations in the church edifice rendered it necessary to expend about twelve thousand dollars. Of course, the congregation was unable to pay out so large a sum of money at the time, but it was shown last night that more than one-half of the debt had already been paid and that in a short time it will have been entirely eliminated.

The First Baptist Church has had its ups and downs in the history of the city of its birth as have also others. In the early days of the city, when but few of the Baptist faith were in Alexandria, one of its ministers was incarcerated in the old watch house which stood upon the site of the present Police Court Court building for violating a law against street preaching.

The champions of the faith, however, were not deterred by persecution, but forged ahead until time crowned their efforts and another generation looked upon a fine church edifice and a large and growing congregation.

During the Civil War the pastor of the First Baptist Church, Rev. C. C. Bitting, was arrested with others by the military authorities and placed upon a freght train and carried between Alexandria and Strasburg daily, as a hostage, it being supposed that Colonel Mosby would not wreck the train while Southern sympathizers were aboard. A train had previously been fired into and Superintendent McCricket killed.

Like most Alexandria churches during the four years' conflict the Baptist church suffered by the scattering of the flock and the seizure of the church building for hospital purposes.

The noble band, however, rose superior to their difficulties, and their many friends will rejoice with them at this day when they are reaping the fruits of their labors.

SENATOR REED ASSAULTS McINTYRE.

The Senate judiciary committee room, where the recent lobby investigation was held, was the scene yesterday of a personal encounter between Senator Reed, of Missouri, one of the leading members of the investigating committee, and John McIntyre, said to be a former officer of the National Typothetae, whose name figured in the correspondence of Martin M. Mulhall, the legislative agent for the National Association of Manufacturers.

It is said Senator Reed struck McIntyre in the face, accompanying his action with an emphatic statement as to the falsity of certain allegations contained in an affidavit which McIntyre was supposed to have in his possession.

Unfortunate scenes similar to the above have occurred at long intervals among Senators, and the latest resort to fistcuffs brings to mind more serious "affairs" in the history of the United States. The attack made by Preston Brooks, member of the House of Representatives from South Carolina, upon Senator Sumner, of Massachusetts, many years ago, was one of the most serious in the annals of Congress. Brooks struck Sumner on the head with a gutta percha cane while the Senator was seated at his desk in the Senate chamber. The object of the assailant was doubtless to slay his victim. Sumner's skull was fractured and he later went to Paris where an operation was performed upon him.

In recent years another unfortunate scene was enacted in the Senate chamber when Senator Bailey, of Texas, lost control of himself and struck Senator Beveridge, of Indiana.

Such occurrences are few and far between, but they are blots in the history of legislation difficult to erase.

HURLS CRUCIFIX AT CROWD.

Schmidt Angry at Crowd's Contribution to Bury Body of Anna Aumuller.

New York, Oct. 4.—Just as the "millionaire" jury in the court of Coroner Feinberg was yesterday finding Hans Schmidt, the renegade priest, guilty of the murder of Anna Anna Aumuller, a dramatic incident ensued which interrupted the inquest.

Coroner Feinberg appealed to members of the jury, which was headed by Theodore P. Shonts, president of the Interborough Rapid Transit Co., for funds with which to bury the dismembered body of Anna Aumuller to save it from the potter's field. Before a member of the jury could move there came a shower of currency and silver from the back of the room. The spectacle caused some one among the 500 spectators to laugh.

Schmidt, with a scowl on his face, sprang from his chair, and tearing a string of beads and a crucifix from his throat hurled them into the crowd behind him.

After hearing the evidence it took the jury just twenty-five minutes to reach a verdict. This was, in effect, that Anna Aumuller came to her death on September 20th last from a hemorrhage at the hands of Hans Schmidt.

The prisoner, slovenly and unkempt in appearance, looked coldy into the jurors' eyes, but gave no show of feeling. Following the filing of the verdict Coroner Feinberg held Schmidt for action of the grand jury.

As Schmidt was led back to his cell men and women in the crowded court room were fighting for beads to carry home as souvenirs.

The sight aroused Schmidt.

"Fools, fools," he muttered. "I thought they were laughing at me."

As he was being locked up in his cell in the Tombs the prisoner broke out again.

"Why all this nonsense?" he cried. "They know I killed my Anna. They know she died. This is all unnecessary."

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Horror of being buried alive caused Andrew J. Turner, a cotton broker of Philadelphia to demand solemn promises from his wife and relatives that after he was apparently dead his body should not be buried until it possibly a spark of life remaining had disappeared. Mr. Turner died suddenly of a standing kidney disease on the evening of Septemzer 21, and his body is still ying in the parlor of his residence. It will not be buried until Monday.

Lucille Singleton changed her mind yesterday about her charge of stabbing against Herman Oelrichs, millionaire student at Columbia Law School, whose automobile met with an accident while the two were riding in it Tuesday night along Broadway New York. She declared in an affidavit that her injuries were caused by the points of glass of the windshield through which she was thrown. In substance the affidavit says Oelrichs and the girl had been drinking, and that Oelrichs lost control of the automobile in which they were riding. "I do not know why I said I was stabbed," states the affidavit, 'unless it was because I was so excited It was note because I want money."

A balcony in Clairmont Hall, 62 east 106th street, New York, creaking under the weight of 250 persons, most of them women and children, suddenly crashed down yesterday on the heads of an Orthodox audience gathered to celebrate the second day of the Jewish New Year. Twelve persons were so badly injured that they were hurried to hospitals or atetend? ed on the spot by ambulance surgeons. Many more were scratched, bruised and shaken either in the crash or the stampede from the hall that followed An instant after the crash the audience surged to doors and fire escapes. There was a serious jam at the doors. One fire escape threatened to fall. Men and women fought to get out.

Wilson Evans, a negro youth, caught after an attack on Miss Cora Little, was lynched yesterday afternoon by a mob of planters near Hazlehurst, Miss. The girl was chloroformed, gagged and carried five miles in the woods. Found by farmers, she was only able to tell part of her story. A mob gathered and searched the county. Evans pleaded for his life but was hanged to a tree. Several planters fired at the body as it swung in the air. Miss Evans is the daughter of a prominent planter and is 18 years old. She is believed to be dying.

Excitement was caused at a burial in Middletown, N Y., were on opening the casket at the grave the body was found lying on its face. Friends believed the woman had been alive when placed in the casket, but the undertaker declared that this was impossible, that life would have been detected at time of embalming. He attributed the change to the jarring of the hearse traveling over rough roads.

The delivery in a Marconi box of the body of a golden haired little girl, apparently murdered, to the Harlem morgue, late yesterday set detectives at work on the theory that the child had been kidnapped for ransom and murdered when hope of obtaining reward failed. The child's head was badly bruised and blackened.

Frederick S. Boyd, a leader of the Industrial Workers of the World, who was found guilty September 29 of advocating sabotage in the recent silk mill strike ate Paterson, N. J., yesterday was sentenced to from one to seven years on one conviction, and from three to seven years on another.

Indications are that the Culebra Cut in the Panama Canal will be filled to the level of Gatun Lake long before October 10, the date fixed for the destruction of the dike by dynamite. Water was first let into the cut on Wednesday and it was expected that it would not fill for another week.

Hay Has Opposition.

Washington, Oct. 4.—There is a movement on foot in the seventh Virginia district to bring out Judge E. D. Newman, of Shenandoah county, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for congress against Representative James Hay, of Madison county.

A number of Wilson Democrats are behind the plan. Their purpose is to rally the Wilson Democrats of the district behind Judge Newmen and make a fight on Mr. Hay because of his opposition to the president's nomination last year.

Judge Newman has always been identified with the independent movement in Virginia.

LOSS OF THE TEMPLEMORE.

Fifty-Four Persons Saved by Wireless Telegraphy.

Baltimore, Oct. 4.—Fifty-four shipwrecked persons from the British freight steamer Templemore, which was burned at sea 800 miles east of the Virginia Capes Monday night, were brought here Thursday by the Hamburg-American steamer Arcadia. No lives were lost and no one was seriously injured, but the hulk of the burned vessel is believed now to be beneath the waters of the Atlantic. The value of the vessel and her cargo is estimated at $700,000, covered by insurance.

Besides the crew there were aboard the ill-fated vessel William Thomas a consular passenger, and a stowaway named McCormick.

Capt. Issac Jones, of the Templemore, said the fire was discovered at 11:30 o'clock Monday night in the hold, where cotton was stored, and it was his belief that it was caused by spontaneous combustion.

The fire reached the engine room so quickly that the steering gear was put out of commission within five minutes after the fire began. The pumps were still working, however, and the crew managed to keep going until nearly 1 o'clock, Finally Edward Emanuel, the wireless operator, reported the lights were out in his room and the current was practically useless.

Emanuel ordered candles lighted, and with the aid of his reserve storage batteries he kept in communication with the Arcadia fifteen minutes longer. Then the last batteries failed.

The experience in the small boats was thrilling. A storm was raging and the wind nearly upset the boats.

Many of the crew were seasick and were exhausted. Some were so weak they had to be lifted out of the boats. When the Arcadia started toward Baltimore, the Templemore was ablaze from bow to stern.

GREEKS WORRIED BY TURKS.

Porte Said to be Moving Troops Toward Kavala and Salonika.

London, ct. 4.—The fear of war with Turkey is growing in Athens, but the Porte is attempting to allay the feeling by announcing her determination to hold the islands in the Aegean subject to the decision of the powers. It is claimed, however, that Turkey is moving troops disguised as irregulars towards Kavala and Salonika. Turkey's irregulars are also reported to be in possession of Dedeagatch, which has been evacuated by Greece.

A dispatch from Belgrade describes the fighting which attended the recapture of Dibra as sanguinary beyond anything which has heretofore occurred in the Balkans.

The Albanians defended the place from house to house while walls topped about them in the streets. They fought with any weapon that came to hand. Even the Serbs admit that the Albanians fought like heroes and left Dibra a mass of smoking ruins.

Paris, Oct. 3.—L'Intransigent says it learns Turkey has been informed that the French government cannot discus projected $140,000,000 loan to the Turkish government until the present Graeco-Turkish differences have been settled.

This attitude of France, the newspaper believes, will hasten a solution of the dangerous situation, and will remove the last obstacle to peace in the Balkans.

URGED AS D. A. R. REGENT.

Mrs. Arthur L. Bosley Asked to Announce andidacy.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 4.—Mrs. Arthur Lee Bosley has been asked to be a candidate for the State regent for Maryland of the Daughters of the American Revolution and is giving it her consideration. She is a native of Virginia, being connected with the Masons, Blount, Randolph and Peyton families of that State.

She has identified herself with interests in Maryland for several years and Maryland women members of the organization have selected her for the State regency. It is expected that she will consent to run.

Five persons were burned to death and $50,00 damage was done in a fire which destroyed the Louisville & Nashville Railroad hotel and restaurant at New Haven, Ky., yesterday. All the victims were members of the family of the hotel manager, J. T. Deavers. He escaped the flames by leaping from a second-story window.

Eight masked bandits rode into Dardanelle, Ark., early yesterday, blew the safe of the First State Bank, obtained several thousand dollars in cash and escaped after a revolver battle with citizens. Before entering the town the bandits cut all telegraph and telephone wires.

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work.

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.
